

Marshall County Conservation Board
Special meeting March 21, 2018
GrimesFarm Conservation Center... 5:00 p.m.

President Pam Paone called the special meeting of Marshall County Conservation Board to order on Wednesday, March 21 at 5:00 p.m.

Board members present including: Ray Helland, Pam Paone, Tom Mack, and Steve Armstrong. Staff present included: Mike Stegmann, and Jeremiah Manken. Public present was Sue Blaisdell. Board member Jeff Mathis was absent.

One change to the agenda, the changing of the header from meeting to special meeting.

There was no public comment.

Stegmann presented to the board a letter of intent to purchase to Louisa Young for acreage near the Stanley Mill Mitigation Site. Stegmann stated the Young may be willing to do a bargain price sale for the property and wanted to do more research. Mack moved that Stegmann continue research and for negotiations to proceed with the intent to purchase. Helland seconded. Voting in favor: Armstrong, Mack, Helland, and Paone. Motion passed.

Meeting adjourned at 5:13 p.m.

Pam Paone, President

Ray Helland, Secretary/Treasurer